

Steve Maikowski
Board Member, Marketing Committee

Growing up in Michigan only miles from the Canadian border, Steve spent many hours watching curling on the Canadian TV channel, but it was only when he moved full time to Saranac Lake in 2014 that he was able to finally try the sport. And he was immediately hooked on the fun, and humbled by the challenge, of curling. He serves as an LPCC Board Member with a focus on marketing and outreach. When not curling, or dreaming of throwing a game-winning stone, Steve is outdoors hiking (he is a 46er), paddling (he is a 90-miler), swimming, cycling, or enjoying his other passions of reading, food and wine, international travel, and soccer. He is also the Vice Chair of AdkAction and was previously the Chair of the Environmental Committee of the Upper Saranac Lake Association. He retired as Director of NYU Press after nearly 40 years in academic publishing. He has a BA in political science from the University of North Texas and a Masters of International Affairs from Columbia University. He lives on Upper Saranac Lake with his wife Andrea.
